

NYOTAA - Artist Bio (2026)

Long

Nyota Izeidi, known professionally as NYOTAA, is a Coventry-based alternative recording artist and founder of independent label Kamona Records.

Rooted in R&B, her sound moves fluidly through hip hop, electronic textures, soul, and elements of alt-rock - driven by emotional honesty, experimentation, and vocal expression.

Her recent releases “You,” “1995,” and “Vulnerability” (2024) marked a creative turning point, reintroducing NYOTAA’s evolving sonic identity and drawing renewed attention to her debut project twentyoneandlost. The work received airplay on BBC Coventry & Warwickshire and BBC Introducing with Theo Johnson, alongside growing organic support across social platforms.

NYOTAA has built a steady presence on the UK live circuit throughout her 20s, performing at GODIVA Festival, Breaking Sound UK (London), Unify Prosper (Birmingham & Coventry), and through her independently curated event series “Secret Location with Nyotaa.”

Her performances prioritise atmosphere, intimacy, and creative risk-taking over convention.

In late 2025, NYOTAA returned to the stage with a Coventry headline at Two Tone Village, premiering new experimental material that signals her next era. The alternative R&B artist expands beyond traditional song structures and embraces layered production, cinematic soundscapes, and raw emotional delivery. She is currently developing her second EP, due for release in summer 2026.
